Programming and Web Development Bootcamps (F - 07)

25,000 THB

| | |
|---|---|
| Target: Grade 5 - 9 | Class Date: June 10 - July 5, 2024 |
| Course Type: 4 - Week Course | Class Time: 12:30 pm - 4:30 pm |
| Instructor/s: Mr. Daniel Pun | |
| No. of Students: Minimum of 5, Maximum of 10 | |

Class Description:

This course is ideal for those who have a passion for programming and are just beginning their journey! The main objective of the course is to help students acquire a better understanding of programming and web development concepts while also having fun. The course starts with the basics—the Python (20 hours) programming language, learning the Java programming language (20 hours), and website development (40 hours). Students will focus on learning HTML (Hyper-Text Markup Language), CSS (Cascading Style Sheets), and JS (Javascript). If you aspire to create something awesome and amazing, no matter where you are in your coding journey, then this course is the right fit for you. Even if you already have a basic, self-taught knowledge of programming, this course will give you a solid foundation and a better understanding of the intricacies, reasons, and explanations for why certain things are the way they are. Moreover, you will get a good grasp of the Linux command line as well. No previous programming experience is required. Enthusiasm is the only prerequisite!

Fun with STEAM! (W - 01)
